

DIVERSITY
COLLABORATIVE

FROM RESISTANCE TO SUSTAINABILITY AND LEADERSHIP:

Cultivating Diverse Leaders in International Schools

In the spring of 2019, three groups initiated a research study to survey international school leadership and diversity:

The Diversity Collaborative

ISC Research

George Mason University

The study was distributed to approximately 2,676 accredited international schools.

The return rates for the survey were representative of the regional distribution of international schools

The majority of survey respondents identified as Head of School or Principal

Responses reflected current demographics of international school leadership

Based upon the survey data, research, and literature, we developed an

Integrated Organizational Framework

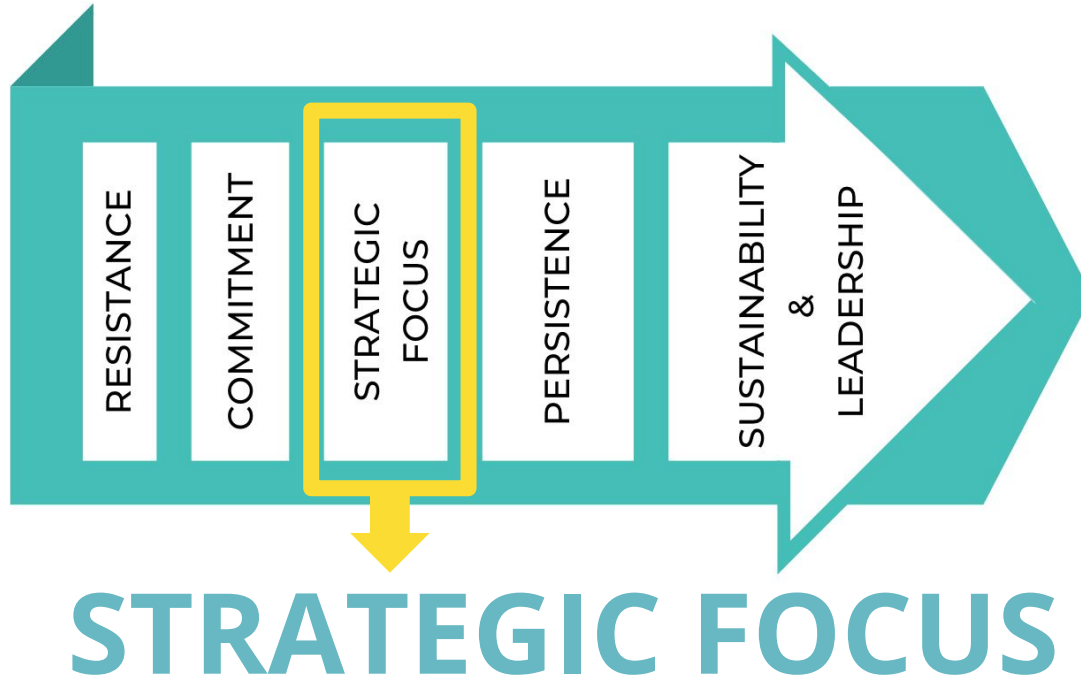

Identify source(s) of resistance and learn from schools in similar contexts.

Articulate a commitment to DEI-J and interculturalism that reflects your unique context.

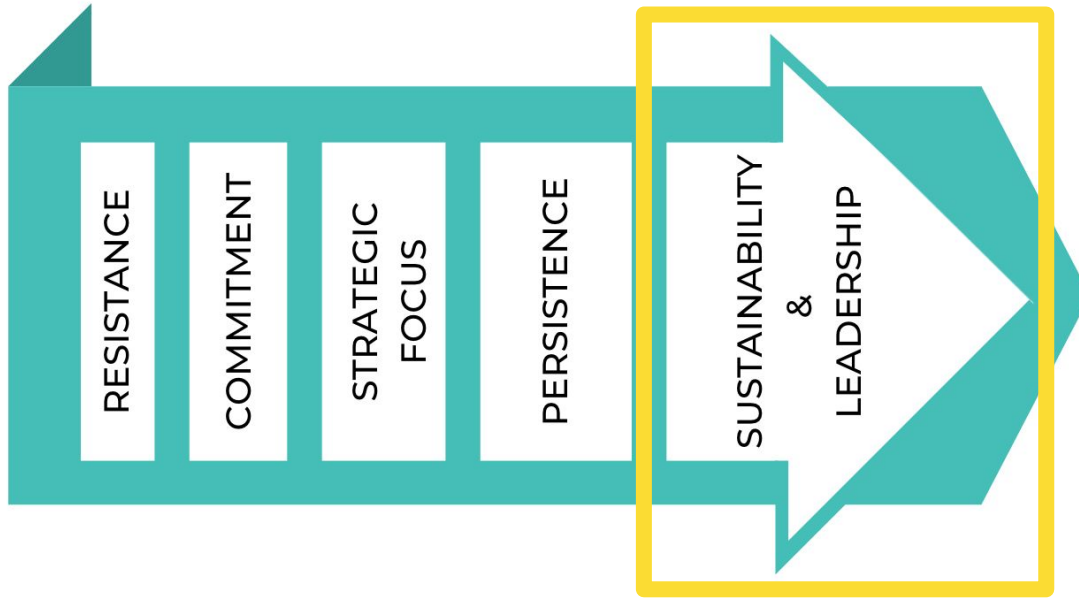

Establish specific goals and long-term plans.

PERSISTENCE

Respond to inevitable challenges.

SUSTAINABILITY & LEADERSHIP

Leverage commitment and serve as role models,
mentors and leaders.

School-level recommendations

To address RESISTANCE:

- Attend local/regional trainings
- Learn from others' journeys
- Articulate why DEI-J is important

To establish COMMITMENT:

- Evaluate your leadership pipeline
- Host courageous conversations
- Refine DEI-J in your context

To develop a STRATEGIC FOCUS:

- Focus on DEI-J in your strategic plan and reaccreditation self-study
- Establish priorities and goals
- Recruit and promote diversity

To ensure PERSISTENCE:

- Celebrate successes and learn from challenges
- Use a tool like the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI)
- Share your journey

To achieve SUSTAINABILITY & LEADERSHIP:

- Use your DEI-J reputation to promote your school
- Lead the DEI-J efforts in your region and globally
- Write a case study or a journal article

Regional & Global Recommendations

Develop
international
school definitions
of DEI-J

Gather
data about existing inequities

Include PD
sessions about DEI-J at conferences

Educate boards &
search committees
and connect to
diverse networks

Work with accreditation
agencies

Identify a “critical friends” group in
each region

Create
case studies

Share and promote all of the work above

1. Why is having a diverse, equitable, and inclusive leadership team critical to your specific school?
2. To what extent is the value of a diverse, equitable, and inclusive leadership team articulated within your school discourse?
3. In what ways does your faculty and school leadership team reflect the ideals of diversity, equity, and inclusion?
4. What do you see as the most challenging aspects of promoting/modeling diversity among your faculty and school leadership team?
5. To what extent are the constructs of diversity, equity, and inclusion present in your organizational strategic plan?
6. Can you envision building relationships (a critical friends network) with others schools and their leadership teams in your city or region to promote awareness about the value of DEI-J in school leadership? If one already is in place, what does it look like? How does it work?
7. After hearing our research today and engaging in this dialogue, what is one action plan you could take back to promote these findings in your own school?
8. What supports do you envision needing to sustain your action plan going forward?

Reflection, Next Steps and Feedback

Please use the QRC code to answer the following questions:

- What are your main insights from the survey?
- What 1-2 action steps can you take to increase the leadership diversity at your school or in your region?
- What further questions do you have/what further data would you like collected in subsequent surveys?

Pair & Share your answers to the questions above.
